Casti Connubii - On Christian Marriage (cont.)
Encyclical of Pope Pius XI December 31, 1930

And to begin with that same Encyclical, which is wholly concerned in vindicating the divine institution of matrimony, its sacramental dignity, and its perpetual stability, let it be repeated as an immutable and inviolable fundamental doctrine that matrimony was not instituted or restored by man but by God; not by man were the laws made to strengthen and confirm and elevate it but by God, the Author of nature, and by Christ Our Lord by Whom nature was redeemed, and hence these laws cannot be subject to any human decrees or to any contrary pact even of the spouses themselves. This is the doctrine of Holy Scripture; this is the constant tradition of the Universal Church; this the solemn definition of the sacred Council of Trent, which declares and establishes from the words of Holy Writ itself that God is the Author of the perpetual stability of the marriage bond, its unity and its firmness.

Yet although matrimony is of its very nature of divine institution, the human will, too, enters into it and performs a most noble part. For each individual marriage, inasmuch as it is a conjugal union of a particular man and woman, arises only from the free consent of each of the spouses; and this free act of the will, by which each party hands over and accepts those rights proper to the state of marriage, is so necessary to constitute true marriage that it cannot be supplied by any human power. This freedom, however, regards only the question whether the contracting parties really wish to enter upon matrimony or to marry this particular person; but the nature of matrimony is entirely independent of the free will of man, so that if one has once contracted matrimony he is thereby subject to its divinely made laws and its essential properties. For the Angelic Doctor, writing on conjugal honor and on the offspring which is the fruit of marriage, says: "These things are so contained in matrimony by the marriage pact itself that, if anything to the contrary were expressed in the consent which makes the marriage, it would not be a true marriage."

By matrimony, therefore, the souls of the contracting parties are joined and knit together more directly and more intimately than are their bodies, and that not by any passing affection of sense of spirit, but by a deliberate and firm act of the will; and from this union of souls by God's decree, a sacred and inviolable bond arises. Hence the nature of this contract, which is proper and peculiar to it alone, makes it entirely different both from the union of animals entered into by the blind instinct of nature alone in which neither reason nor free will plays a part, and also from the haphazard unions of men, which are far removed from all true and honorable unions of will and enjoy none of the rights of family life.

Dominican Republic Mission Trip: Please keep in your prayers Jeremy Welch and all the St. Francis Xavier Missionaries and clergy who leave this week for the Dominican Republic and return in two weeks.

CCD Catechists Needed: The CCD program is in need of more catechists and assistant catechists. Please prayerfully consider serving as a catechist as it is a spiritual work of mercy that serves an immediate need - that of forming the next generation of disciples of Christ.

Next Sun, Aug 12 – CCD Catechist Meeting: There will be an informal meeting for new and continuing catechists at 10:15am in the large classroom nearest the rear parking lot. The new Archdiocesan forms and "privacy" information will be reviewed at this meeting.

Next Sun, Aug 12 - VIRTUS Safe Environment training at 1pm in the large classroom near the rear parking lot. This will be a 3-hour class.

Sun, Aug 19 - CCD Classes begin: CCD parents should complete all forms by this date. If you have questions about the CCD program, contact Randal Mandock at 678-485-3374 or rmandock@bellsouth.net.

The Flower Guild is recruiting more ladies with creative talent to become members of our group who beautify the main and side altars with floral arrangements every weekend. Your commitment would be approximately once every 5-6 weeks. If interested, please contact Pat Freeman at 678-787-4884 or freema5469@aol.com. Thank you.
