Casti Connubii - On Christian Marriage (cont.)
Encyclical of Pope Pius XI December 31, 1930

All of these things, Venerable Brethren, you must consider carefully and ponder over with a lively faith if you would see in their true light the extraordinary benefits on matrimony — offspring, conjugal faith, and the sacrament. No one can fail to admire the divine Wisdom, Holiness and Goodness which, while respecting the dignity and happiness of husband and wife, has provided so bountifully for the conservation and propagation of the human race by a single chaste and sacred fellowship of nuptial union.

When we consider the great excellence of chaste wedlock, Venerable Brethren, it appears all the more regrettable that particularly in our day we should witness this divine institution often scorned and on every side degraded.

For now, alas, not secretly nor under cover, but openly, with all sense of shame put aside, now by word again by writings, by theatrical productions of every kind, by romantic fiction, by amorous and frivolous novels, by cinematographs portraying in vivid scene, in addresses broadcast by radio telephony, in short by all the inventions of modern science, the sanctity of marriage is trampled upon and derided; divorce, adultery, all the basest vices either are extolled or at least are depicted in such colors as to appear to be free of all reproach and infamy. Books are not lacking which dare to pronounce themselves as scientific but which in truth are merely coated with a veneer of science in order that they may the more easily insinuate their ideas. The doctrines defended in these are offered for sale as the productions of modern genius, of that genius namely, which, anxious only for truth, is considered to have emancipated itself from all those old-fashioned and immature opinions of the ancients; and to the number of these antiquated opinions they relegate the traditional doctrine of Christian marriage.

The Cry Room is reserved for parents with small children. If you are not a parent with a small child, please do not sit in the cry room during Mass. Please sit in the nave of the church with the rest of the congregation.

Mass Intentions: We will not be accepting any more requests until further notice. Please be patient with us as we re-evaluate this process, such that we can make it more accessible to all our parishioners.

Inquirers Class: The priests of the parish are teaching a class for non-Catholics who have questions about the Catholic religion. All non-Catholics are welcome to attend; be they planning to become a Catholic or simply would like to know more about the Faith without making a commitment. The Inquirers Class is every Wednesday at 6:00pm, pausing periodically for seasonal breaks.

Parent Notification and CCD Registration Forms for the Confirmation Class are available in the vestibule and parish hall. Please fill them out and return them to the CCD office or the CCD box in the office complex.

Sat, Oct 13 – Movie & Theology will take place from 12pm-3pm. The movie is Thor and topics are humility, meekness, and self-sacrifice with a discussion of the Nicomachean Ethics. People 13-103 are welcome, please bring food and drink for a potluck during discussion.

Sun, Oct 21 - Confraternity of St Peter: There will be a ceremony for all members of the Confraternity of St. Peter. During this ceremony, the new members, who have joined in the past year and old members recite the prayer of the Confraternity kneeling at the communion rail. Afterwards, they will receive a blessing. To enroll in the Confraternity of St. Peter, please pick up a form in the vestibule, the social hall, or you can enroll online here: <https://fssp.com/confraternity-of-saint-peter/>

Sun, Oct 28 – Annual Parish Picnic will take place at Tolleson Park in Smyrna, GA. Food, fun, & games. More details to come. Mark your calendars!

Blessed Sacramentals should be treated with reverence. They should not be left abandoned on the blessed items tray. Please do not leave items to be blessed if you will not be able to pick them up by the following Sunday. Any items left more than a week may be reverently disposed of.
