XXII Sunday after Pentecost – October 21, 2018

Today – Second Collection for World Missions

Today - Confraternity FSSP: After each Mass, all who have joined in the past year, as well as existing members, are invited to come to the communion rail to recite the Confraternity prayer and receive a blessing.

Today – FNE Presentation: The Federation of North American Explorers girls group will be giving a presentation after each Mass today. All families are welcome to attend.

Fr. DeGuzman returns on Friday. Please check the schedule for weekday Mass times.

Next Sun, Oct 28 – Christ the King: we will recite the Act of Consecration of the Human Race to the Sacred Heart after each Mass. This will take the place of the Leonine prayers after the 7:15am and 9:00am Low Masses.

Next Sun, Oct 28 – Annual Parish Picnic will be at Tolleson Park in Smyrna, GA after the 11:30am Mass. Bratwurst & franks will be provided. Parishioners are asked to bring side dishes, desserts, drinks, etc. There is a playground for the kids, volleyball, cornhole, and any games you can bring, PLUS, our famous “us vs. them” soccer game! Pick up a flyer in the vestibule for more information.

†All Souls Novena of Masses: as in previous years, a novena of Masses will be offered between November 2 - 10 for all those submitting All Souls Mass requests for their dead. Envelopes are located in the vestibule.

Encyclical of Pope Pius XI December 31, 1930

How grievously all these err and how shamelessly they leave the ways of honesty is already evident from what we have set forth here regarding the origin and nature of wedlock, its purposes and the good inherent in it. The evil of this teaching is plainly seen from the consequences which its advocates deduce from it, namely, that the laws, institutions and customs by which wedlock is governed, since they take their origin solely from the will of man, are subject entirely to him, hence can and must be founded, changed and abrogated according to human caprice and the shifting circumstances of human affairs; that the generative power which is grounded in nature itself is more sacred and has wider range than matrimony — hence it may be exercised both outside as well as within the confines of wedlock, and though the purpose of matrimony be set aside, as though to suggest that the license of a base fornicating woman should enjoy the same rights as the chaste motherhood of a lawfully wedded wife.

Armed with these principles, some men go so far as to concoct new species of unions, suited, as they say, to the present temper of men and the times, which various new forms of matrimony they presume to label “temporary,” “experimental,” and “companionate.” These offer all the indulgence of matrimony and its rights without, however, the indissoluble bond, and without offspring, unless later the parties alter their cohabitation into a matrimony in the full sense of the law.

Indeed there are some who desire and insist that these practices be legitimized by the law or, at least, excused by their general acceptance among the people. They do not seem even to suspect that these proposals partake of nothing of the modern “culture” in which they glory so much, but are simply hateful abominations which beyond all question reduce our truly cultured nations to the barbarous standards of savage peoples.

And now, Venerable Brethren, we shall explain in detail the evils opposed to each of the benefits of matrimony. First consideration is due to the offspring, which many have the boldness to call the disagreeable burden of matrimony and which they say is to be carefully avoided by married people not through virtuous continence (which Christian law permits in matrimony when both parties consent) but by frustrating the marriage act. Some justify this criminal abuse on the ground that they are weary of children and wish to gratify their desires without their consequent burden. Others say that they cannot on the one hand remain continent nor on the other can they have children because of the difficulties whether on the part of the mother or on the part of family circumstances.

Sun, Nov 4 – All Saints Festival sponsored by The Knights of Columbus and the Squires will be after the 11:30am Mass. The Knights will sell lunches. The Squires will run games for the children and there will be a parade of saints. Please come and have your children dress as their favorite saints.

Attention Cake Bakers: We are in need of donated baked goods for the Cake Walk during the All Saints Party. The proceeds will go to the Ultrasound Initiative! This helps pay for free ultrasounds for women who are unsure about keeping their baby. Please bring baked goods to the gym on Sun, Nov 4. All donations are much appreciated.

Confirmation Class meets at 1:15pm today in the library.

Inquirers Class: The priests of the parish are teaching a class every Wed at 6pm, pausing periodically for seasonal breaks, for non-Catholics who have questions about the Catholic religion. All non-Catholics are welcome to attend.

The Cry Room is reserved for parents with small children. If you are not a parent with a small child, please do not sit in the cry room during Mass. Please sit in the nave of the church with the rest of the congregation.

Mass Intentions: We will not be accepting any more requests until further notice. Please be patient with us as we re-evaluate this process, such that we can make it more accessible to all our parishioners.

Confirmation Certificates for all those confirmed in April this year are available for pickup in the vestibule.
