Christ the King – October 28, 2018

Today: we will recite the Act of Consecration of the Human Race to the Sacred Heart after each Mass. This will take the place of the Leonine prayers after the 7:15am and 9:00am Low Masses.

Today – Annual Parish Picnic will be at Tolleson Park in Smyrna, GA, after the 11:30am Mass. Please come join your fellow parishioners for the biggest parish event of the year!

Thursday, Nov 1 – All Saints is a Holy Day of Obligation. All Catholics are obliged under pain of mortal sin to attend Mass, even if they are unable to attend their usual parish. Masses will be at 6:30am, 12:00pm (noon) and 7:30pm (sung) followed by a reception in the social hall. Please bring something to share.

Friday, Nov 2 – All Souls: Masses will be at 6:30am, 12:00pm (noon), and 7:30pm, which will be a sung requiem with absolution at the Catafalque.

Next Sunday, Nov 4 – All Saints Festival sponsored by The Knights of Columbus and the Squires will be after the 11:30am Mass. The Knights will sell lunches. The Squires will run games for the children and there will be a cake walk and a parade of saints. Children are encouraged to dress as a saint and be prepared to share a few key points of their saint's life.

All parishioners: Please do clean up after yourselves after the 11:30am Mass on Sundays. Make sure all counters and tables are wiped down, the floor is swept, all food is thrown out, and the coffee pots are cleaned. Please also take out the trash. We currently have a rodent problem in the social hall. Thank you for your cooperation.

Encyclical of Pope Pius XI December 31, 1930

But no reason, however grave, may be put forward by which anything intrinsically against nature may become conformable to nature and morally good. Since, therefore, the conjugal act is destined primarily by nature for the begetting of children, those who in exercising it deliberately frustrate its natural power and purpose sin against nature and commit a deed which is shameful and intrinsically vicious.

Small wonder, therefore, if Holy Writ bears witness that the Divine Majesty regards with greatest detestation this horrible crime and at times has punished it with death. As St. Augustine notes, "Intercourse even with one's legitimate wife is unlawful and wicked where the conception of the offspring is prevented. Onan, the son of Juda, did this and the Lord killed him for it."

Since, therefore, openly departing from the uninterrupted Christian tradition some recently have judged it possible solemnly to declare another doctrine regarding this question, the Catholic Church, to whom God has entrusted the defense of the integrity and purity of morals, standing erect in the midst of the moral ruin which surrounds her, in order that she may preserve the chastity of the nuptial union from being defiled by this foul stain, raises her voice in token of her divine ambassadorship and through Our mouth proclaims anew: any use whatsoever of matrimony exercised in such a way that the act is deliberately frustrated in its natural power to generate life is an offense against the law of God and of nature, and those who indulge in such are branded with the guilt of a grave sin.

We admonish, therefore, priests who hear confessions and others who have the care of souls, in virtue of Our supreme authority and in Our solicitude for the salvation of souls, not to allow the faithful entrusted to them to err regarding this most grave law of God; much more, that they keep themselves immune from such false opinions, in no way conniving in them. If any confessor or pastor of souls, which may God forbid, lead the faithful entrusted to him into these errors or should at least confirm them by approval or by guilty silence, let him be mindful of the fact that he must render a strict account to God, the Supreme Judge, for the betrayal of his sacred trust, and let him take to himself the words of Christ: "They are blind and leaders of the blind: and if the blind lead the blind, both fall into the pit."

†All Souls Novena of Masses: as in previous years, a novena of Masses will be offered November 2 - 10 for all those submitting All Souls Mass requests for their dead. Envelopes are located in the vestibule.

Attention Cake Bakers: We are in need of donated baked goods for the Cake Walk during the All Saints Party. The proceeds will go to the Ultrasound Initiative! This helps pay for free ultrasounds for women who are unsure about keeping their baby. Please bring baked goods to the gym on Sun, Nov 4. All donations are much appreciated.

Confirmation Class will not meet for the next two weeks due to the parish picnic today and the All Saints party next weekend. Class will resume on Sunday, Nov 11 in the library.

Inquirers Class: The priests of the parish are teaching a class every Wed at 6pm, pausing periodically for seasonal breaks, for non-Catholics who have questions about the Catholic religion. All non-Catholics are welcome to attend.

The Cry Room is reserved for parents with small children. If you are not a parent with a small child, please do not sit in the cry room during Mass. Please sit in the nave of the church with the rest of the congregation.

Mass Intentions: We will not be accepting any more requests until further notice. Please be patient with us as we re-evaluate this process, such that we can make it more accessible to all our parishioners.
