Casti Connubii- On Christian Marriage (cont. from 5/26/19 bulletin)
Encyclical of Pope Pius XI December 31, 1930

Wherefore, let the faithful also be on their guard against the overrated independence of private judgment and that false autonomy of human reason. For it is quite foreign to everyone bearing the name of a Christian to trust his own mental powers with such pride as to agree only with those things which he can examine from their inner nature, and to imagine that the Church, sent by God to teach and guide all nations, is not conversant with present affairs and circumstances; or even that they must obey only in those matters which she has decreed by solemn definition as though her other decisions might be presumed to be false or putting forward insufficient motive for truth and honesty. Quite to the contrary, a characteristic of all true followers of Christ, lettered or unlettered, is to suffer themselves to be guided and led in all things that touch upon faith or morals by the Holy Church of God through its Supreme Pastor the Roman Pontiff, who is himself guided by Jesus Christ Our Lord. Consequently, since everything must be referred to the law and mind of God, in order to bring about the universal and permanent restoration of marriage, it is indeed of the utmost importance that the faithful should be well instructed concerning matrimony; both by word of mouth and by the written word, not cursorily but often and fully, by means of plain and weighty arguments, so that these truths will strike the intellect and will be deeply engraved on their hearts. Let them realize and diligently reflect upon the great wisdom, kindness and bounty God has shown towards the human race, not only by the institution of marriage, but also, and quite as much, by upholding it with sacred laws; still more, in wonderfully raising it to the dignity of a Sacrament by which such an abundant fountain of graces has been opened to those joined in Christian wedlock, that these may be able to serve the noble purposes of wedlock for their own welfare and for that of their children, of the community and also for that of human relationship. Certainly, if the latter day subverters of marriage are entirely devoted to misleading the minds of men and corrupting their hearts, to making a mockery of matrimonial purity and extolling the filthiest of vices by means of books and pamphlets and other innumerable methods, much more ought you, Venerable Brethren, whom "the Holy Ghost has placed as bishops, to rule the Church of God, which He hath purchased with His own blood," to give yourselves wholly to this, that through yourselves and through the priests subject to you, and, moreover, through the laity welded together by Catholic Action, so much desired and recommended by Us into a power of hierarchical apostolate, you may, by every fitting means, oppose error by truth, vice by the excellent dignity of chastity, the slavery of covetousness by the liberty of the sons of God, that disastrous ease in obtaining divorce by an enduring love in the bond of marriage and by the inviolate pledge of fidelity given even to death. Thus will it come to pass that the faithful will wholeheartedly thank God that they are bound together by His command and led by gentle compulsion to fly as far as possible from every kind of idolatry of the flesh and from the base slavery of the passions. They will, in a great measure, turn and be turned away from these abominable opinions which to the dishonor of man's dignity are now spread about in speech and in writing and collected under the title of "perfect marriage" and which indeed would make that perfect marriage nothing better than "depraved marriage," as it has been rightly and truly called. Such wholesome instruction and religious training in regard to Christian marriage will be quite different from that exaggerated physiological education by means of which, in these times of ours, some reformers of married life make pretense of helping those joined in wedlock, laying much stress on these physiological matters, in which is learned rather the art of sinning in a subtle way than the virtue of living chastely.

All Registered Parishioners: God has blessed our parish with continual growth and as we plan for the future, it is apparent that we need to consider some short-term solutions to accommodate this. We are considering shifting the Sunday Mass times to distribute the attendance more evenly between the three Masses thus making room for new parishioners and the future growth of our parish. The 9am Mass and the 11:30am Mass are crowded and well attended, but there is always more than enough room at the 7:15am Mass. We understand that attending the 7:15am Mass can be difficult for many, especially those driving from a great distance and families with small children. It is our hope that by changing the first Mass on Sunday to 8am more parishioners would be able to attend this Mass to alleviate overcrowding at the other Masses and in the confession lines. The next Mass would be at 10am and the third at noon. We are going to be conducting a poll over the next few weeks for registered parishioners, as we would like your input as to which of the two masses (10am or noon) you would prefer to be the high Mass. This opinion poll will assist the pastor in making his final decision on this matter. Sunday Mass times will shift to 8am, 10am, and 12 noon in the month of July, during which the choir will be on vacation and it will be all low Masses. High Mass will resume in the month of August. Please fill out the sheet designated for this purpose located in the narthex and place it in the box labeled "Opinion Poll" (also located in the narthex) by June 30th. Thank you for your most gracious support of the parish and of her priests!

God bless and reward you,

-Father DeGuzman

Marriage Banns: Let it be known to all here present that Joseph-Henri Fradet, son of Roland and Flore of the Fredette family, and Ana Liza Avergozado Crescencio, daughter of Saturnino and Rosalina of the Crescencio family, intend to contract marriage between themselves. Therefore, we admonish all that if anyone is aware of any existing impediment that would prohibit marriage between them, that he is obligated to reveal it as soon as possible to the Parish Priest, and this serves as the first publication of these Banns.
