Today-Consecration of our parish to the Sacred Heart Of Jesus

Today after the 11:30am Mass Father DeGuzman will solemnly consecrate our parish to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As a sign of our consecration, an image of His Most Sacred Heart will be hung on the ambo. Ave Christus Rex!

Today-SFX Missions Pancake Breakfast Fundraiser: Please support the SFX Mission trip to the Dominican Republic by joining us today after the 9am & 11:30am Mass for a pancake breakfast in the social hall. Your donations and prayers are much appreciated!

Ascension Thursday, May 30th: On the Ascension of the Lord there will be a 6:30am low Mass and a 7:30pm high Mass.

First Holy Communion Certificates are available for pick up in the narthex.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament: We are pleased to announce that we will have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 10am-3pm every Thursday. Continuation of this most praiseworthy devotion is dependent upon consistent and continual fulfillment of at least two persons per hour of exposition. If you could spend an hour with Our Lord, then please do sign up on the designated sheet located in the narthex. It is our hope and prayer that many will seize this opportunity to make reparation to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and pray for our priests, families, and parish. "Praise be to the divine Heart that wrought our salvation; to it be glory and honor forever." (from prayer of Consecration to Sacred Heart). Contact the parish office for more details.

Casti Connubii- On Christian Marriage
Encyclical of Pope Pius XI December 31, 1930

Consequently, as the onslaughts of these uncontrolled passions cannot in any way be lessened, unless the spirit first shows a humble compliance of duty and reverence towards its Maker, it is above all and before all needful that those who are joined in the bond of sacred wedlock should be wholly imbued with a profound and genuine sense of duty towards God, which will shape their whole lives, and fill their minds and wills with a very deep reverence for the majesty of God. Quite fittingly, therefore, and quite in accordance with the defined norm of Christian sentiment, do those pastors of souls act who, to prevent married people from failing in the observance of God's law, urge them to perform their duty and exercise their religion so that they should give themselves to God, continually ask for His divine assistance, frequent the sacraments, and always nourish and preserve a loyal and thoroughly sincere devotion to God. They are greatly deceived who having underestimated or neglected these means which rise above nature, think that they can induce men by the use and discovery of the natural sciences, such as those of biology, the science of heredity, and the like, to curb their carnal desires. We do not say this in order to belittle those natural means which are not dishonest; for God is the Author of nature as well as of grace, and He has disposed the good things of both orders for the beneficial use of men. The faithful, therefore, can and ought to be assisted also by natural means. But they are mistaken who think that these means are able to establish chastity in the nuptial union, or that they are more effective than supernatural grace. This conformity of wedlock and moral conduct with the divine laws respective of marriage, without which its effective restoration cannot be brought about, supposes, however, that all can discern readily, with real certainty, and without any accompanying error, what those laws are. But everyone can see to how many fallacies an avenue would be opened up and how many errors would become mixed with the truth, if it were left solely to the light of reason of each to find it out, or if it were to be discovered by the private interpretation of the truth which is revealed. And if this is applicable to many other truths of the moral order, we must all the more pay attention to those things, which appertain to marriage where the inordinate desire for pleasure can attack frail human nature and easily deceive it and lead it astray; this is all the more true of the observance of the divine law, which demands sometimes hard and repeated sacrifices, for which, as experience points out, a weak man can find so many excuses for avoiding the fulfillment of the divine law. On this account, in order that no falsification or corruption of the divine law but a true genuine knowledge of it may enlighten the minds of men and guide their conduct, it is necessary that a filial and humble obedience towards the Church should be combined with devotedness to God and the desire of submitting to Him. For Christ Himself made the Church the teacher of truth in those things also which concern the right regulation of moral conduct, even though some knowledge of the same is not beyond human reason. For just as God, in the case of the natural truths of religion and morals, added revelation to the light of reason so that what is right and true, "in the present state also of the human race may be known readily with real certainty without any admixture of error," so for the same purpose he has constituted the Church the guardian and the teacher of the whole of the truth concerning religion and moral conduct; to her therefore should the faithful show obedience and subject their minds and hearts so as to be kept unharmed and free from error and moral corruption, and so that they shall not deprive themselves of that assistance given by God with such liberal bounty, they ought to show this due obedience not only when the Church defines something with solemn judgment, but also, in proper proportion, when by the constitutions and decrees of the Holy See, opinions are prescribed and condemned as dangerous or distorted.

Cry Room Overcrowding: Parents with small children, please feel free to bring your children into the social hall during Mass when the cry room is over-crowded. You can follow along with the Mass on the monitor located in the back corner of the social hall.

Ushers Needed: Ushers are needed for the 9am Mass. Please contact the parish office if you are able to assist in this important ministry.

Items left on cart by social hall kitchen: Please pick up any items (coolers, serving platters, food storage containers, bags, etc.) that belong to you that are on the cart by the kitchen in the social hall. Items remaining after June 2nd will be disposed of.

Please do not leave any leftover food or drink in the social hall refrigerator. At the end of the event in which it was intended please take home or dispose of any food/drink/condiments that remain. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Tuesday, June 18th-Juventutem Event: Adults 18-35, Holy Hour of Adoration 7-8pm followed by game night and BBQ in the parish social hall, $5/plate.
