Today- A plenary indulgence may be gained by visiting a church on this day and reciting there an Our Father and the Creed (Portiuncula Indulgence). (Handbook of Indulgences, Norm #22; see conditions pp.109-111)

Today-Homeschooling Meetup: Adults are invited to a homeschool meetup today, from 1:30 to 2:30 in the parish hall. A few mothers will explain the systems they use for homeschooling (including Seton Home Study School, Saxon Math for high school, Analytical Grammar Jr., and Phonetic Zoo).

Mon, Aug 3-St. Stephen Guild Enrollment Ceremony: On Monday we will have a high Mass at 7:30pm and an enrollment ceremony for the Guild of St. Stephen. There will not be a noon Mass this day.

Marriage Banns: Let it be known to all here present that Séan Andrew Drop, son of Andrew and Karen of the Drop family, and Alexandra Patricia Russell, daughter of Brian and Patricia of the Russell family, intend to contract marriage between themselves. Therefore, we admonish all that if anyone is aware of any existing impediment that would prohibit marriage between them, that he is obligated to reveal it as soon as possible to the Parish Priest, and this serves as the first publication of these Banns.

August, month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Please take Holy Water to your Homes: Since the Holy Water fonts must remain empty because of the current situation, please take Holy Water home with you. As always, we have the container in the narthex of the church where you can fill your own containers with Holy Water (if you ever find it empty, please notify the office or one of the priests). We also provide some small bottles of Holy Water that you are free to take if you do not have your own container. These were filled yesterday by several of our teenage men and one mother to make Holy Water more readily available for others. The cost of the bottles is approximately 40 cents, so we suggest that you make a donation of that amount for each bottle that you take. To remind you of the great power of Holy Water, we include this excerpt from the blessing of Holy Water: "Let this creature [Holy Water] serve thee in expelling demons and curing diseases. Whatsoever it sprinkles in the homes of the faithful, be it cleansed and delivered from harm. Let such homes enjoy a spirit of goodness and an air of tranquility, freed from baneful and hidden snares. By the sprinkling of this water may everything opposed to the safety and repose of them that dwell therein be banished, so that they may possess the well-being they seek in calling upon thy holy name, and be Protected from all peril."

Marriage Banns: Let it be known to all here present that Patrick Michael O'Reilly, son of Steven and Margaret of the O'Reilly family, and Lalon Montana Haygood, daughter of Wesley and Marsha of the Haygood family, intend to contract marriage between themselves. Therefore, we admonish all that if anyone is aware of any existing impediment that would prohibit marriage between them, that he is obligated to reveal it as soon as possible to the Parish Priest, and this serves as the first publication of these Banns.

ENCYCLICAL OF POPE PIUS XII HAURIETIS AQUAS ON DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART May 15, 1956 cont...

19. But after We have paid Our debt of thanks to the Eternal God, We wish to urge on you and on all Our beloved children of the Church a more earnest consideration of those principles which take their origin from Scripture and the teaching of the Fathers and theologians and on which, as on solid foundations, the worship of the Sacred Heart of Jesus rests. We are absolutely convinced that not until we have made a profound study of the primary and loftier nature of this devotion with the aid of the light of the divinely revealed truth, can we rightly and fully appreciate its incomparable excellence and the inexhaustible abundance of its heavenly favors. Likewise by devout meditation and contemplation of the innumerable benefits produced from it, we will be able to celebrate worthily the completion of the first hundred years since the observance of the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus was extended to the Universal Church.

20. Moved therefore by this consideration, to the end that the minds of the faithful may have from Our hands salutary food and consequently after such nourishment be able more easily to arrive at a deeper understanding of the true nature of this devotion and possess its rich fruits, We will undertake to explain those pages of the Old and New Testament in which the infinite love of God for the human race (which we shall never be able adequately to contemplate) is revealed and set before us. Then, as occasion offers, We shall touch upon the main lines of the commentaries which the Fathers and Doctors of the Church have handed down to us. And finally, We shall strive to set in its true light the very close connection which exists between the form of devotion paid to the Heart of the divine Redeemer and the worship we owe to His love and to the love of the Most Holy Trinity for all men. For We think if only the main elements on which the most excellent form of devotion rests are clarified in the light of Sacred Scripture and the teachings of tradition, Christians can more easily "draw waters with joy out of the Savior's fountains." By this We mean they can appreciate more fully the full weight of the special importance which devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus enjoys in the liturgy of the Church and in its internal and external life and action, and can also gather those fruits of salvation by which each one can bring about a healthy reform in his own conduct, as the bishops of the Christian flock desire.

21. That all may understand more exactly the teachings which the selected texts of the Old and New Testament furnish concerning this devotion, they must clearly understand the reasons why the Church gives the highest form of worship to the Heart of the divine Redeemer. As you well know, venerable brethren, the reasons are two in number. The first, which applies also to the other sacred members of the Body of Jesus Christ, rests on that principle whereby we recognize that His Heart, the noblest part of human nature, is hypostatically united to the Person of the divine Word. Consequently, there must be paid to it that worship of adoration with which the Church honors the Person of the Incarnate Son of God Himself. We are dealing here with an article of faith, for it has been solemnly defined in the general Council of Ephesus and the second Council of Constantinople. To be cont...
