All Saints, November 1, 2020

Today- All Saints Day Parade: Please join us from 2:30 to 4:30 for an All Saints Day Parade and tailgate in the parking lot! Bring your own picnic. Children are encouraged to dress up as saints and have a sign with the name of their saint. The parade of saints will begin at 3:00. (All participants will be divided into a few big groups in order to maintain the requirements for social distancing, etc.)

Today-FSSP Seminary Burse: Please make checks payable to FSSP.

Today-Homeschool Meetup: Adults are invited to a homeschool meetup today from 10:30 to 11:30 in the social hall. The topics for this meeting are teaching reading, grading, different styles of learning, the December saint peg doll exchange signup, the Nutcracker party, and Q & A.

All Souls Envelopes are available in the narthex of the church and on the tables in the gym. Please fill them out and place them in the collection basket if you wish for us to remember your loved ones among the faithful departed during Masses said in November.

Mon, Nov 2nd-†All Souls: On All Souls Day there will be a low Mass at noon, followed immediately by two more low Masses. This is one of the days of the year in which priests are allowed to say three Masses. The priest that says three Masses must say one for all the faithful departed and one for the Holy Father's intentions. There will also be a high Mass at 7:30pm this day.

ENCYCLICAL OF POPE PIUS XII
Haurietis Aquas
ON DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART

62. And now, venerable brethren, in order that we may be able to gather from these holy considerations abundant and salutary fruits, We desire to reflect on and briefly contemplate the manifold affections, human and divine, of our Savior Jesus Christ which His Heart made known to us during the course of His mortal life and which It still does and will continue to do for all eternity. From the pages of the Gospel particularly there shines forth for us the light, by the brightness and strength of which we can enter into the secret places of this divine Heart and, with the Apostle of the Gentiles, gaze at "the abundant riches of (God's) grace, in his bounty towards us in Christ Jesus."

63. The adorable Heart of Jesus Christ began to beat with a love at once human and divine after the Virgin Mary generously pronounced Her "Fiat"; and the Word of God, as the Apostle remarks: "coming into the world, saith, 'Sacrifice and oblation thou wouldst not; but a body thou hast fitted to Me; holocausts for sin did not please thee. Then said I, "Behold I come"; in the head of the book it is written of Me, "that I should do thy will, O God!"'. . . In which will we are sanctified by the oblation of the body of Jesus Christ once."

64. Likewise was He moved by love, completely in harmony with the affections of His human will and the divine Love, when in the house of Nazareth He conversed with His most sweet Mother and His foster father, St. Joseph, in obedience to whom He performed laborious tasks in the trade of a carpenter.

65. Again, He was influenced by that threefold love, of which We spoke, during His public life: in long apostolic journeys; in the working of innumerable miracles, by which He summoned back the dead from the grave or granted health to all manner of sick persons; in enduring labors; in bearing fatigue, hunger and thirst; in the nightly watchings during which He prayed most lovingly to His Father; and finally, in His preaching and in setting forth and explaining His parables, in those particularly which deal with mercy--the lost drachma, the lost sheep, the prodigal son. By these indeed both by act and by word, as St. Gregory the Great notes, the Heart of God Itself is revealed: "Learn the Heart of God in the words of God, that you may long more ardently for things eternal."

66. But the Heart of Jesus Christ was moved by a more urgent charity when from His lips were drawn words breathing the most ardent love. Thus, to give examples: when He was gazing at the crowds weary and hungry, He exclaimed: "I have compassion upon the crowd"; and when He looked down on His beloved city of Jerusalem, blinded by its sins, and so destined for final ruin, He uttered this sentence: "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that slayest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered together thy children, as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wings, and thou wouldst not!" And His Heart beat with love for His Father and with a holy anger when seeing the sacrilegious buying and selling taking place in the Temple, He rebuked the violators with these words: "It is written: My house shall be called a house of prayer; but you have made it a den of thieves." To be cont...

Congratulations to Maria Catalina, daughter of Alan and Tania Dominguez, who was baptized and received into the Church yesterday.

Important Note on Indulgences for November: A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted to those who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. This indulgence was previously limited to Nov 1-8th. This year, due to the ongoing pandemic, the Apostolic Penitentiary decreed on Oct. 23, 2020, that the faithful can transfer the possibility of achieving indulgences for the faithful departed to any particular day during the whole month of November, for the same total of eight days, but not necessarily contiguous days. Partial indulgences are granted to those who recite Lauds or Vespers of the Office of the Dead, and to those who recite the prayer "Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domini, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Requiescant in pace" ("Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace"). On All Soul's Day (Nov 2) a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted to those who visit any parish church or public oratory and there recite one Our Father and one Credo. All indulgences whatsoever may be applied to the Poor Souls at any time by way of suffrage (the simple intention to offer them for the Poor Souls is sufficient).
