From Archbishop Hartmayer: The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass for persons with health reasons or concerns remains in effect for all in the Archdiocese until further notice. Because of this, those wishing to participate in Mass and receive Holy Communion can do so by attending any Mass any day of the week. The obligation to keep a holy Sabbath remains, and Catholics are reminded that, even while homebound, they are to devote themselves to, among other practices, personal prayer, meditation on the readings from the Sunday Mass and the making of a spiritual Communion. While those who are at high risk or who care for someone at risk can and should stay home and participate in an online or televised liturgy, Archbishop Hartmayer encourages those who are healthy and are not burdened with the fear of being exposed to the virus to begin returning to Mass and receive the grace of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist. Watching the celebration of the Mass on the computer or TV cannot become a substitute for receiving the sacraments.

- Please note that the faithful are still required to use face masks during Mass. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Catechists and Classroom Monitors Needed: Returning catechists should email Randal Mandock at ccd@fsspatl.com. New catechists need to hand in a Catechist Information Form (find at parish website or at entrance to gym) and fill out a volunteer application with the Archdiocese. Classroom monitors are also needed. The Archdiocesan guidelines specify two adult catechists in each classroom. If you would like to serve but do not wish to teach, you may still sign up as a classroom monitor. The monitor assists with discipline and other non-teaching duties. Contact Randal Mandock at ccd@fsspatl.com.

Sunday, Oct 18th-Confraternity of St. Peter: There will be a ceremony for all new members of the Confraternity of St. Peter after all Masses. Marriage Banns: Let it be known to all here present that Adam Lee Markich, son of Andrew and Kathy of the Markich family, and Sydney Lorraine Rose, daughter of Wayne and Nora of the Rose family, intend to contract marriage between themselves. Therefore, we admonish all that if anyone is aware of any existing impediment that would prohibit marriage between them, that he is obligated to reveal it as soon as possible to the Parish Priest, and this serves as the first publication of these Banns.

Congratulations to Anabella Salette, daughter of Jose and Claudia Adame, who was baptized and received into the Church yesterday.
