Update-Latest Directives from Archbishop Hartmayer: Sunday Dispensation from attending the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is extended through September 28th. From the GA Bulletin: "Watching the celebration of the Mass on the computer or TV cannot become a substitute for receiving the sacraments," said Archbishop Hartmayer. "When ill or in a vulnerable category for being infected or infecting others, the sick person should always remain at home. This pandemic should not make us lazy regarding our spiritual life. Our children are back in school and many people have returned to work outside the home. We still need to be extremely cautious and practice proper protocol. I suspect more of us can return to Sunday or weekday Mass than are currently attending. I am grateful to all our priests and lay faithful for making it possible and safe to attend Mass. I appreciate the patience of our people during this unprecedented time. Please continue to be safe."

Today-Homeschooling Meetup: Adults are invited to a homeschool meetup today from 1:30 to 2:30 in the parish hall. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss curriculum for elementary, middle, and high school as well as support each other.

Today: FSSP Seminary Burse-Please make checks payable to FSSP.

Today: AoA 2nd Collection is for Catholic University-Please make checks payable to St. Francis de Sales.

Handicapped Parking for Sunday is available in the cul-de-sac located on the side of the gym and designated spots are marked with cones.

Mass Requests: In order to guarantee that we do not surpass a Mass intention backlog of six months, we will be continuing the policy of placing a limit on three Mass requests in the queue at a time per parishioner. By the grace of God, we have a growing number of parishioners and it is crucial that we are capable of celebrating all the Mass intentions we have accepted. Indeed, it is important that also new parishioners have an opportunity to request Mass intentions as well. We regret that no exceptions can be made.

ENCYCLICAL OF POPE PIUS XII
HAURIETIS AQUAS
ON DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART

41. Hence, since there can be no doubt that Jesus Christ received a true body and had all the affections proper to the same, among which love surpassed all the rest, it is likewise beyond doubt that He was endowed with a physical heart like ours; for without this noblest part of the body the ordinary emotions of human life are impossible. Therefore the Heart of Jesus Christ, hypostatically united to the divine Person of the Word, certainly beat with love and with the other emotions- but these, joined to a human will full of divine charity and to the infinite love itself which the Son shares with the Father and the Holy Spirit, were in such complete unity and agreement that never among these three loves was there any contradiction of or disharmony.

42. However, even though the Word of God took to Himself a true and perfect human nature, and made and fashioned for Himself a heart of flesh, which, no less than ours could suffer and be pierced, unless this fact is considered in the light of the hypostatic and substantial union and in the light of its complement, the fact of man's redemption, it can be a stumbling block and foolishness to some, just as Jesus Christ, nailed to the Cross, actually was to the Jewish race and to the Gentiles.

43. The official teachings of the Catholic faith, in complete agreement with Scripture, assure us that the only begotten Son of God took a human nature capable of suffering and death especially because He desired, as He hung from the Cross, to offer a bloody sacrifice in order to complete the work of man's salvation. This the Apostle of the Gentiles teaches in another way: "For both He that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified are all of one. For which cause He is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying, 'I will declare thy name to My brethren'. . . And again, 'Behold I and My children, whom God hath given Me.' Therefore, because the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He also in like manner hath been partaker of the same. . . Wherefore it behooved Him in all things to be made like unto His brethren that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest before God, that He might be a propitiation for the sins of the people. For in that wherein He Himself hath suffered and been tempted He is able to succor them who are tempted." To be cont...
