All Expectant Parents should contact the parish office at least three months before the due date so that we may help you prepare for your baby's baptism.

Souls of the Christian Apostolate (SOCA) and Juventutem Denver are hosting a nation-wide conference for young Catholic adults this summer from August 13th-15th in cooperation with FSSP Denver. It will be a weekend filled with practical formation, talks, Latin Masses, and social and devotional activities, highlighting a procession with the Archbishop of Denver as well as a waltz. Our aim is to provide spiritual formation to win the world for Christ the King! To find out more, go to: <http://SOCAPOSTOLATE.ORG/INTERIORAPOSTLES/>

The Social Hall: Cleanliness is next to godliness. Please tidy up after yourselves if you spend any time in the Social Hall. Parents have the responsibility to make sure their family does not leave a mess behind. Consider it like a fragile ecosystem—the rare species of priests and volunteers are threatened with extinction by the pollution and litter...

Revision to Coronavirus protocols:

- Archbishop Hartmayer withdrew the dispensation from the Sunday obligation to attend Mass May 23. All Catholics are again morally obligated to attend Mass each Sunday unless impeded by illness.
- In accordance with updated guidelines from the CDC, the Archdiocese will no longer require the wearing of masks in church for those who have been vaccinated against the Coronavirus. Those who are not vaccinated should still wear a mask. The Archdiocese is relying on the honesty of each parishioner for compliance.
