FREE POINSETTIAS—! Now that the liturgical Christmastide is over, feel free to take home one or more of the poinsettias in the gym. It is currently too cold in Atlanta for them to be put outside, but after the last frost and once the average temperature no longer falls below 55°F, they can be moved outside. For how to care for poinsettias in the South, see <https://www.southernliving.com/home/how-to-care-for-poinsettias>

ICON OF ST. JOSEPH: The Knights will display the traveling icon of St. Joseph beginning today through Sunday, January 22nd in the church for public veneration. May the Guardian of the Redeemer aid in your devotion to the Holy Infant in this Christmas season.

CCD CLASSES resume today.

CANDLES FOR CANDLEMAS: This year in preparation for the traditional blessing of candles on February 2, the Feast of the Purification, we are offering for sale a set of candles specifically made for Candlemas. The set consists of two, high-quality church candles, of 51% beeswax, and may be had for $7 a set. They must be purchased before the blessing at Candlemas and may be collected afterwards. Orders may be placed in the bookstore on Sundays, or, with exact change, in the church office during the week.

DOM GUÉRANGER ON THE BAPTISM OF OUR LORD:

“But who could worthily explain the glorious circumstances of this second Epiphany? It resembles the first in this, that it is for the benefit and salvation of the human race. The star has led the Magi to Christ; they had long waited for his coming, they had hoped for it; now they believe. Faith in the Messiah having come into the world is beginning to take root among the Gentiles. But faith is not sufficient for salvation; the stain of sin must be washed away by water. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved (Mk. 16:16). The time is come, then, for a new manifestation of the Son of God, whereby there shall be inaugurated the great remedy, which is to give to Faith the power of producing life eternal.”
